We are interested in how our body is doing. KORONA scales, with their reliable quality and useful features, will help you to find out more. They may just display the weight or give you detailed information about body mass index, body fat and more. So, you are always up to date and can rely on the data shown. Of course, in this new catalogue you will notice that design and functionality do not have to be a contradiction but can lead to a very unique range of scales!
